God created man to live in communion with Him in righteousness and holiness: to be wise in God, holy in God, blessed in God.

Through the temptation of Satan man fell into a sinful state and now continues to walk in sin, unwise, unholy, unblessed, separated from God and under the power of Satan. In order to restore the communion which was destroyed, God becomes man to be our Mediator,

our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, redemption, our Prophet, High Priest and King.

Christ our lord,

those whom He purchased with His blood, His own.

In order to impute this communion restored by Christ, to the individual, the Father and the Son send their Holy Spirit.

The Spirit of wisdom, peace, power, glory, revelation, discipline, and blessedness. Through the Word of God the Holy Spirit gives light, peace, power, and blessedness.

The order in which this is wrought in those who are called, is as follows: Illumination, justification, sanctification and preservation.

In this way man is regenerated to the image of God, in true righteousness and holiness;

Luke 10:21-24

A child of light, just, holy, blessed in hope.

The same Holy Spirit confirms through the use of the holy sacraments, the forgiveness of sins, the power for a holy life.

Good works are then the fruits of thankfulness. Converse with God in prayer is the life of the communion with God.
